Municipal Elections in the Supreme City

As submitted in another Connection, there have been several irregularities in the publication of lists of voters and candidates for the City and in fixing the dates of elections &c

2) Under the Municipal Election Rules of 1909, the Dy. Comr. of the Dl (and not the Numb. President) will have to attend to various matters relative to Numb. Elections, and he is the authority that should fix the dates, times and places for elections & publish the same in the Gazette, Sde 1804 /

Ref 3rd Aug. 1915 the several powers vested in the Dy. Comr. under those rules were ordered to be exercised by the Dpty. President so far as the Bangalore City was concerned As similar order was not issued in respect of the Mysore City, the Election Rules of 1909 apply to that municipality at present in force by

3) Nevertheless a notice announcing the dates of election in the Mysore City has appeared in the Mysore Gazette under the signature of the Dpty. President It is not clear whether the Dy. Comr gave his sanction both previously

4) When the information was brought to the notice of the Rd Secty, he was pleased to direct that
